

Master's consideration :

1. Accept difficulties and his limits in front of his/her students.
2. Keep maintaining his/her silence.
3. Be calm and serene, aware of emotional expression.
4. Restful thought and clear.
5. Be modest, simple and essential.
6. Avoid jokes that despise students.
7. Gentle and anticipating, see ahead.
8. Be patient with students that has no courage and weak.
9. To educate hard students with good manner and advise.
10. Don't shout at students who ask question.
11. Be interested by a students question and listen attentively.
12. Understand the question and answer only the question.
13. Accept excuses and put things in its place.
14. Accept his fault and admit/honour the truth.
15. Prevent student from learning disastrous thing.
16. Awaken the three worlds (body, emotion and thought) toward the path of universal spiritual way of life.
17. Be precise, clear and firm; be just.
18. By necessity a master could be authoritarian without becoming authoritarian.
19. To prefer/encourage expression then submission.
20. To know how to be: sometimes be in front as a guide, sometimes in the middle as participant, sometimes behind watching and observing so everything going well.
21. Always ready to give and transmit the knowledge with caring-love.
22. The aim/goal and the satisfaction of a master is to transform a student/disciple into a teacher/master.
23. Offer advise and explanation according to students level/maturity. In this case it is useful to know in advance the students inner-situation, his/her " 3 worlds" expressions and his/her goal in action/doing.
24. Respect students opinions and indicate where she/he will arrive with that opinion.
25. Keep maintaining the behaviour and appearance of a master, it is the mirror of his/her healthiness in body, emotion, thought and spirit.
26. Before all, to serve student first for the common purpose/cause/work.
27. Behave in mind to feed the whole worlds/ everybody even though she/he speaks for one student.
28. Thinking analytically and globally at the same time without neglecting the important presence of the intuition.
29. In his/her every expression of the three worlds (body, emotion and thought) always contain compassion and universal love.
30. Every action should be natural, in the way to honour the law of nature, to cultivate nature.
